

LOCAL NEWS.

THE HONORABLE QUINCY gave an elegant entertainment at his country residence in Nunn Valley yesterday, the 2nd inst., being the anniversary of his birthday. A large number of guests were present on the occasion, among whom were Admiral Winslow, Commander of the Pacific Squadron, and staff, and the Captain and Officers of the U. S. S. California and Narragansett.

Yesterday evening Admiral Winslow, the Captain and Officers of the ship entertained a large number of guests on board the California. A splendid collation was spread for the occasion, while, together with the dancing to the fine music of the ship's band, the evening was rendered one of extreme pleasure to all the guests.

The Man for the Post, by the J. C. Murray, closes at the Post office to-day at one o'clock.

We mentioned that the day of publication of the Hawaiian (monthly) is changed from the 1st to the 15th of each month. The first number will appear on the 15th inst.

POSTOFFICE.—At a meeting of the voters of this district, held at Kaimukapu Church, on Saturday evening, the following questions were submitted to the voters for their consideration at the coming election: Messrs. C. L. Young, A. F. Judd, J. O. Carter, and J. P. Lee. The two former have already represented other districts in the Legislature.

AMERICAN CONGRESS.—A meeting will be given at Kaimukapu Church next Saturday evening, under the auspices of the Hon. Mrs. J. O. Carter, for the benefit of the church at 2 o'clock. There will, doubtless, be a large attendance, as the Hawaiian choir, which was chosen as the best of this city, assisted by several others, have kindly volunteered their services for the occasion.
